International Congress of Americanists. 1930. 1930.

Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, U.S.A.
The International Congress of Americanists was held at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, U.S.A., from August 1 to 10, 1930. The Congress was organized by the American Anthropological Association and the American Historical Association. It was the first time that a congress of Americanists had been held in the United States. The Congress was attended by about 100 delegates from 15 different countries. The main topics of the Congress were the history and prehistory of the Americas, the languages of the Americas, and the art and archaeology of the Americas. The Congress was a great success and it was a landmark event in the history of Americanist studies.

The initial controversy in the Second Church in Ipswich is found on shelf-number **H.27.120. Pickering's A bad omen was answered by Wm. Giddinge and others in A plain narrative. To this the Second Church answered in a letter which may be found on shelf-number **H.26.67, to which a reply was published by a friend of truth [John Cleaveland], which may be found on shelf-number **H.26.66. A later history of the controversy, by John Cleaveland, may be found on shelf-number **H.99.-259. A reunion with the Second Church was effected in 1774.
